

HER Business Revolution Superwomen Membership Club Terms and Conditions

- 1) Members are forbidden from sharing any login details, information, documents, content, videos, and similar, with anyone else. It should be used for personal use, and not copied or imitated in any way for any other purpose.
- 2) Members use the HER Business Revolution content at their own risk, and HER Business Revolution, and any associated companies, take no responsibility for any legal, financial, reputable, or similar consequences that arise from its use.
- 3) Membership payment is to be paid to HER Business Revolution in monthly intervals, and failure to pay will result in immediate termination of membership, and claiming of any monies owed to the company in full. In this case accessing or using any of the benefits associated with the HER Business Revolution Superwomen Membership Club will be prohibited until payment has re-commenced and monies owed have been claimed.
- 4) Monthly membership can be cancelled at any time by contacting HER Business Revolution or cancelling the monthly payment, whereas six and twelve month membership options can only be cancelled after either the six or twelve month initial term (and following this will automatically move onto another six or twelve month term if not cancelled). Upon cancellation in writing (or of the direct debit payment), any monies owed for the remaining membership term (either one, six or twelve months) will be due immediately, of which failure of payment will result in legal action.
- 5) HER Business Revolution has the right to remove members immediately from the membership club if they are found to be misusing, damaging or having negative impact on the group or brand in any way, and also reserve the right to decline re-entry on this basis.
- 6) HER Business Revolution can remove, add, and amend content in the HER Business Revolution Superwomen Membership Club anytime without prior notice.
- 7) HER Business Revolution has the right to increase the monthly price of the HER Business Revolution Superwomen Membership Club or ask for extra payments for additional material or content, however sufficient prior warning will be given to all members.
- 8) HER Business Revolution will always endeavour to do the best by its members and will always welcome feedback to improve the HER Business Revolution Superwomen Membership Club. Please contact us through our website at www.herbusinessrevolution.biz with any queries, comments or suggestions for improvement.

The above terms and conditions do not affect statutory rights, and by joining the HER Business Revolution Superwomen Membership Club and paying the monthly fee this automatically means that members agree to them.
